Dear Sir or Madam,

We are a well-established middle-sized company with business activities in many countries.

About 8,000 types of catalogue products are manufactured and sold to thousands of customers all over the world. We are also subject to the general business competition and our prices are calculated on cost base. Please find attached two certificates in accordance with the ISO 9001 and EN 9100 standards.

Of course, we are pleased to confirm

- The strict compliance with laws, regulations and standards.
- That any acceptance or allocation of gifts or favours exceeding the threshold of a token of appreciation is forbidden.

You may rest assured that any ethical and moral principles regarding the way of dealing with members of staff and business associates are firmly entrenched in our corporate philosophy.

We fully understand your due diligence. However, we are not in a position to reach any individual agreements due to the large number of enquiries.

Yours sincerely
Erwin Halder KG
